

Three to strike it lucky this Christmas

ORIGINALO

WIN A CHRISTMAS GIFT!

By IKRAM ISMAIL

ikram.ismail@mmail.com.my

KUALA LUMPUR: If you are looking for a luxury escape this Christmas, you might want to take part in a contest offered by Originalo, the brainchild of the daughter of the Sultan of Selangor, Tengku Datin Paduka Setia Zatahah Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah, and her French husband Aubry Rahim Mennesson.

"Whether we are Muslim, Christian, Hindu or Buddhist, we should all share in this Christmas spirit at the end of the year. This is why we are offering three lucky winners out there fabulous Originalo gifts this Christmas. The lucky winners will be revealed on Dec 20."

To take part, one can go to www. originalo.com.my and fill out the contact form. "Next, search for Originalo on Facebook, choose to 'like' it and complete the following sentence 'I want an Originalo giftbox because...' and post it as a comment on your Facebook Wall," said Tengku Zatahah.

Originalo positions itself as the 'next generation lifestyle gifts' with prices ranging from RM180 to RM1,800. The company targets middle to high-income professionals and executives, men and women aged 20 to 55, focusing on local and expatriates in Malaysia and Singapore and people from around the region.

It currently has over 100 quality hotels and spa partners in seven gift boxes wrapped under the themes of Spa, Escape and Luxury.